FORT BENNING – Fort Benning will welcome Command Sgt. Maj. William “Joe” Ulibarri at an assumption of responsibility ceremony in front of Infantry Hall at 4 p.m. on Feb. 23.

Ulibarri will assume the position of post command sergeant major from Command Sgt. Maj. Douglas Greenway.

Ulibarri entered active service in 1982. His first assignment, following basic training and airborne school, was with the 2nd Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment. During his tenure there, he deployed on Operation Urgent Fury. He also competed in and won the annual Best Ranger Competition.

At Fort Lewis, Wash., in July 2003 he assumed the position of the 172nd Separate Infantry Brigade command sergeant major, where he assisted with the transition to the 172nd Stryker Brigade Combat Team. The 172nd SBCT went on to distinguish itself in 2005 and 2006 during Operation Iraqi Freedom and was awarded the Valorous Unit Award after 16 months in Mosul and Baghdad.

Media interested in attending this event should contact the Fort Benning Public Affairs Office.
